Amendment B

Honorable Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

In response to the Office Action mailed 2002, October 8, please and the above application as follows:

REMARKS - General

By the above amendment, Applicants have amended the title to emphasize the novelty of the invention and meet Examiner's comments.

Also applicants have rewritten all claims to define the invention more particularly and distinctly so as to overcome the technical rejections and define the invention patentably over the prior art.

Elections under § 121

Per our conversation, Applicant elects figure 4 for the distinct species for Claim 1 and the preferred embodiment. Figure 5 is an alternate embodiment of the current invention.

The application respectfully submits for the reasons given above that the claims are a fortior patentable and should be allowed

Conclusion

For all of the above reasons, applicant submits that the specification and claims are now in proper form, and that the claims all define patentably over prior art. Therefore the applicant submits that this application is now in condition for allowance, which action is respectfully solicit.
